

[Abacus Basics] No.1

(1) If Column A represents the ones place, what do Columns B, C, and D represent?

A: ones place column

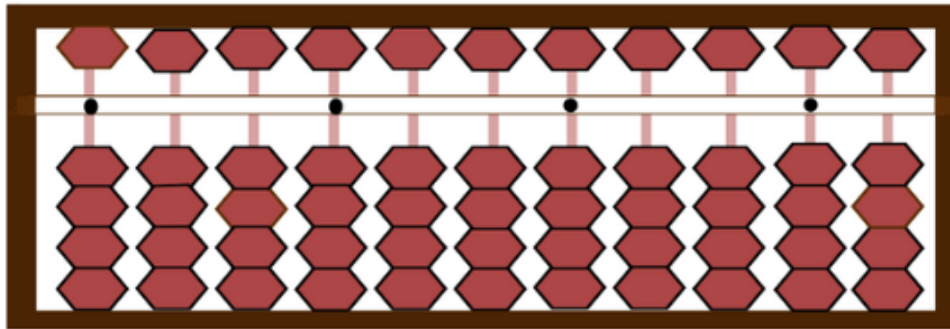

B: place column

C: place column

D: place column

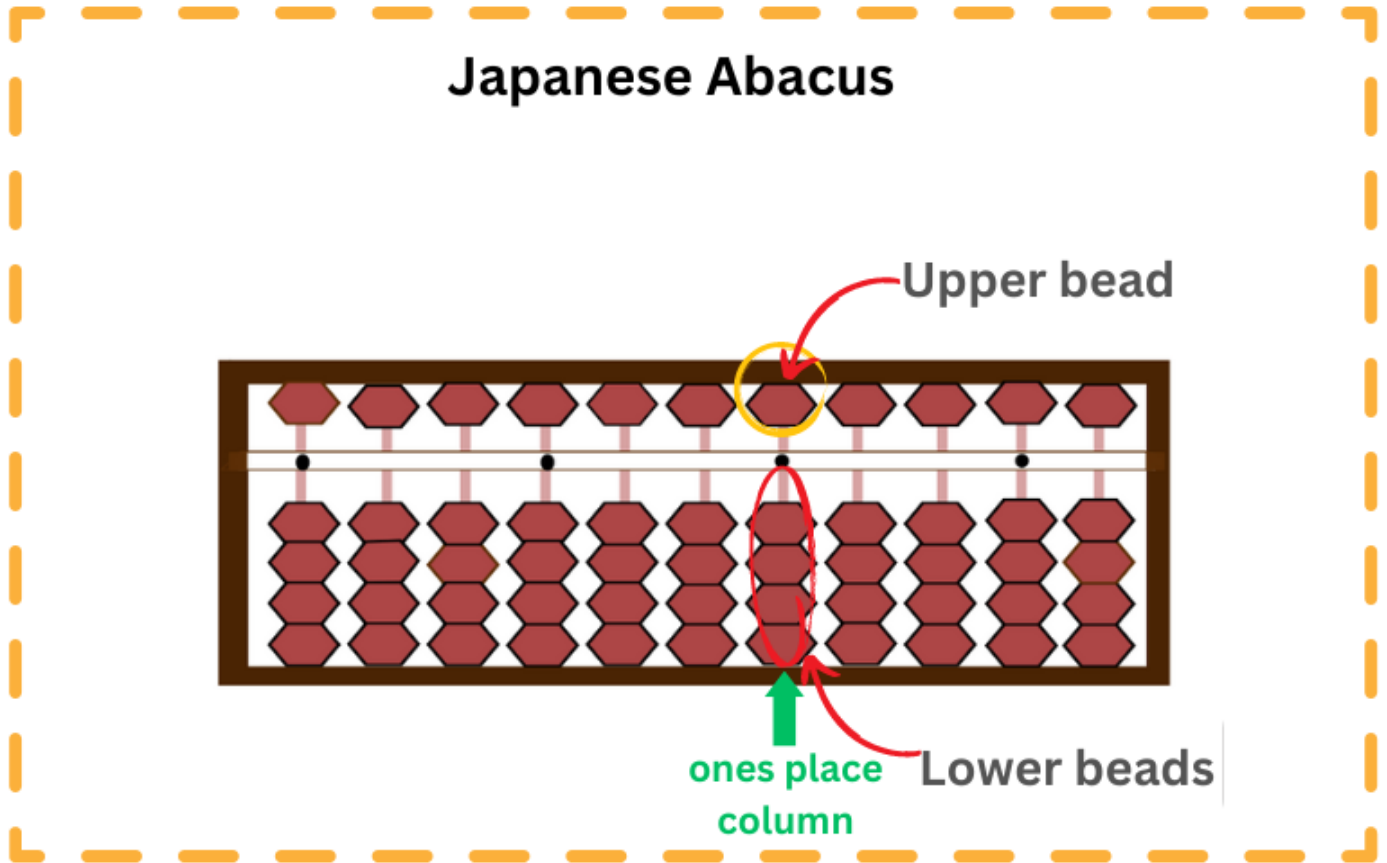

(2) Circle the ones place columns in the abacus image below.

Japanese Abacus

(3) What is the value of each upper and lower bead?

Each upper bead has a value of .

Each lower bead has a value of .

Since there are 4 lower beads in each column, they can represent values from to

[Answers: Abacus Basics]

(1)

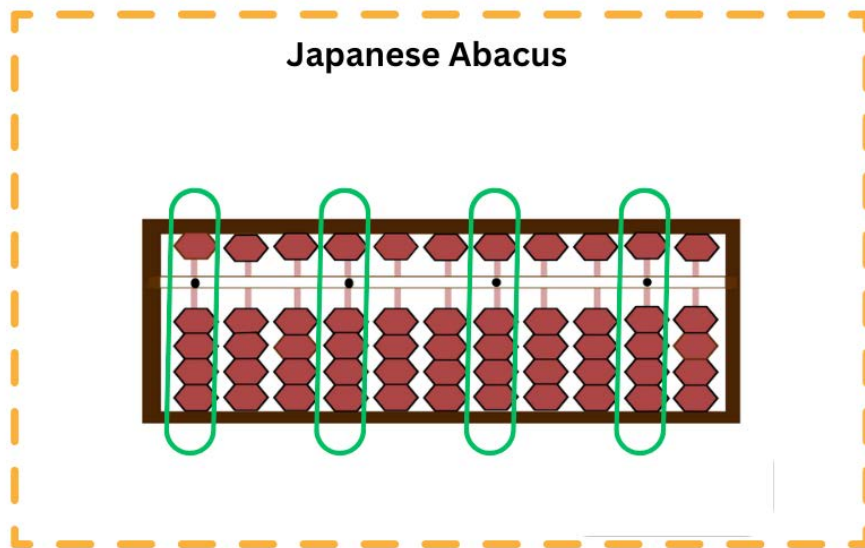

A: ones place column

B: tens place column

C: hundreds place column

D: thousands place column

(2)

(3)

Each upper bead has a value “5”.

Each lower bead has a value of “1”.

Since there are 4 lower beads in each column, they can represent values from to “1” to “4”.